Today's Teen Media Corp. is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization. Funds raised are used to cover the costs associated with producing a free online resource written by teens for teens. TTMC also provides community service hour opportunities for students, offers student internships, and supports teen-related community service projects, charities and educational causes. Throughout the school year TTMC offers contests to encourage budding writers, photographers, poets and artists. For teens interested in pursuing careers in communications or related fields, a mentoring program is in development.
